FOREWORD

This report provides a summary of the election expenses incurred and the contributions received by the registered political parties and candidates that participated in the 35th general election, held on October 25, 1993. It also provides summaries of the returns submitted by registered political parties for the 1989–1993 fiscal periods.

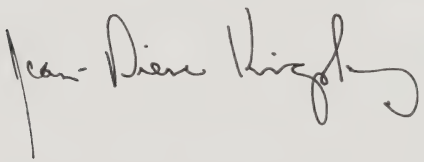

A report containing the official results of the election, entitled Thirty-Fifth General Election 1993: Official Voting Results, has already been published. Further information on the election is published in the Statutory Report of the Chief Electoral Officer, entitled Towards the 35th General Election.

AVANT-PROPOS

Le présent rapport fournit le sommaire des dépenses d'élection et des contributions versées aux partis politiques enregistrés et aux candidats ayant pris part à la 35e élection générale, tenue le 25 octobre 1993. On y trouvera également les sommaires des rapports financiers soumis par les partis politiques enregistrés pour leurs exercices de 1989 à 1993 inclusivement.

INTRODUCTION

Regulation of election spending

In 1874, Parliament introduced mechanisms to regulate the financing of federal elections. The Dominion Elections Act of that year required candidates to file an election expenses return. It would be almost 100 years before the first elements of the modern system of regulating elections were put in place, beginning with the registration of political parties in 1970.

In 1974, following the work of two special committees on election spending, the Barbeau Committee (1966) and the Chappell Committee (1971), the Canada Elections Act was amended to include the imposition of a limit on the election expenses of parties and candidates; a requirement for registered political parties to file a return at the end of each fiscal period and an election expenses return; and the reimbursement of a portion of the expenses incurred by candidates and registered political parties.

The most recent innovation in this area of regulation came in May 1993 with the passage of Bill C-114, which imposed restrictions on the sources of contributions to registered political parties and candidates.

Fiscal period returns, 1989–1993

Under subsection 44(1) of the Canada Elections Act, the chief agent of a registered political party must transmit to the Chief Electoral Officer a return containing the party's receipts and expenses for each fiscal period. Except for newly registered parties, a fiscal period begins on January 1 and ends on December 31 of each year.

The summaries in Tables 1–5 are taken from the fiscal period returns for 1989–1993 filed by registered political parties. They do not include the six political parties whose applications for registration were not officially approved until after the close of nominations for the 35th general election on September 27, 1993, but they do include the four previously registered parties that were deregistered on that date (see

INTRODUCTION

La réglementation du financement électoral

Le législateur canadien a mis en place dès 1874 des mécanismes pour réglementer le financement des élections fédérales. En 1874, l'Acte des élections fédérales rendait obligatoire, pour les candidats, le dépôt d'un rapport sur leurs dépenses d'élection. Il faudra attendre près de 100 ans, soit en 1970, pour qu'apparaissent les premiers éléments du système moderne de réglementation électorale, avec l'enregistrement des partis politiques.

En 1974, à la suite des travaux de deux comités spéciaux sur les dépenses électorales – les comités Barbeau (1966) et Chappell (1971) –, la Loi électorale du Canada fut modifiée pour imposer un plafond aux dépenses d'élection des partis et des candidats, pour obliger les partis enregistrés à produire un rapport à la suite de leur exercice financier et un rapport sur leurs dépenses d'élection, et pour rembourser une partie des dépenses des candidats et des partis politiques enregistrés.

La plus récente des innovations en cette matière remonte à 1993, lorsque le projet de loi C-114, promulgué en mai de cette année, a imposé des restrictions quant à la source des contributions versées aux partis politiques enregistrés et aux candidats.

Rapports pour les exercices financiers de 1989 à 1993

Conformément au paragraphe 44(1) de la Loi électorale du Canada, l'agent principal d'un parti enregistré doit faire parvenir au directeur général des élections un rapport faisant état des recettes et dépenses du parti pour chaque exercice financier. Cet exercice va du 1er janvier au 31 décembre, sauf dans le cas des partis nouvellement enregistrés.

Les sommaires qui figurent dans les tableaux 1 à 5 sont tirés des rapports financiers déposés par les partis politiques enregistrés pour leurs exercices financiers de 1989 à 1993. Ils excluent les six partis politiques dont la demande d'enregistrement n'a été officiellement

"Registration of political parties" in the Note to the Reader).

Contributions and election expenses returns
Under section 46 of the Canada Elections Act, registered political parties must transmit to the Chief Electoral Officer an audited return in respect of election expenses incurred by or on behalf of the party within six months following the date of the election.

The summaries of the election expenses of registered political parties in Tables 6 and 7 of this report are taken from the returns filed by those parties for the 35th general election. The four political parties that were deregistered on September 27, 1993 (the date of the close of nominations) because they had failed to nominate at least 50 candidates for the election are included in the summaries. In accordance with section 31 of the Act, deregistered parties are required to file a return in respect of election expenses incurred from the time an election writ is issued to the time of deregistration (see "Registration of political parties" in the Note to the Reader).

Under section 228 of the Act, candidates in a general election are also required to transmit to the returning officer, no later than four months after the date of the election, an audited return listing contributions and election expenses. The amounts shown in the tables in Section II, presented by electoral district, are taken from candidates' returns.

Contributions to registered political parties and candidates
Section 217.1 of the Canada Elections Act states that registered political parties may not accept contributions from an individual who is not a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada; a corporation or an association not conducting business in Canada; a union that does not hold bargaining rights for employees in Canada; or a foreign political party, a foreign state or an agent of a foreign state. Candidates are subject to the same restrictions.

approuvée qu'à la clôture des présentations de candidatures pour la 35e élection générale, le 27 septembre 1993, mais incluent les quatre partis précédemment enregistrés qui furent radiés du Registre des partis à cette même date. (Voir Enregistrement des partis politiques dans l'Avertissement.)

Rapports sur les contributions et les dépenses d'élection
En vertu de l'article 46 de la Loi électorale du Canada, les partis politiques enregistrés doivent soumettre au directeur général des élections un rapport vérifié concernant les dépenses d'élection faites par le parti ou pour son compte relativement à l'élection, dans un délai de six mois après la date du scrutin.

Les sommaires des dépenses d'élection des partis politiques enregistrés qui figurent aux tableaux 6 et 7 du présent ouvrage sont tirés des rapports que ces partis ont déposés pour la 35e élection générale. Ils incluent les quatre partis politiques qui ont été radiés du Registre des partis politiques le 27 septembre 1993, jour des présentations, pour n'avoir pas présenté au moins cinquante candidats à cette élection. Ces partis sont en effet tenus par l'article 31 de la Loi de déposer un rapport sur les dépenses d'élection encourues depuis l'émission des brefs jusqu'au moment de leur radiation. (Voir Enregistrement des partis politiques dans l'Avertissement.)

Conformément aux dispositions de l'article 228 de la Loi, les candidats à l'élection générale sont eux aussi tenus de transmettre au directeur du scrutin un rapport vérifié faisant état des contributions reçues et des dépenses d'élection engagées, au plus tard quatre mois après la date du scrutin. De ces rapports ont été extraits les montants figurant aux tableaux de la section II, par circonscription.

Contributions reçues par les partis politiques enregistrés et les candidats
Conformément à l'article 217.1 de la Loi électorale du Canada, il est interdit à un parti enregistré d'accepter des contributions provenant d'un particulier qui n'est ni citoyen canadien ni résident permanent au Canada; d'une société commerciale ou d'une association qui Contributions may be made in the form of money, goods or services. The Act sets no limit on the amount that may be contributed to a registered political party or a candidate. Registered political parties may accept contributions and issue tax receipts year-round; candidates, on the other hand, may not issue official receipts for contributions until they have filed their nomination papers.

The 2 156 candidates who filed nomination papers for the 35th general election received 160 944 contributions totalling $42 210 219. Individuals constituted the majority of donors in terms of both number and amount; there were 131 245 individual contributions to candidates, totalling $17 565 542 and representing 41.6 percent of all donations. The next-largest groups of contributors were businesses and commercial organizations (23.4 percent), political organizations, such as local associations (18.7 percent) and registered political parties (11.6 percent). Figures A.1 and A.2 present a breakdown of contributions to candidates by source and amount.

n'exerce pas d'activités au Canada; d'un syndicat qui n'est pas titulaire d'un droit de négocier au nom d'employés au Canada; d'un parti politique étranger; d'un gouvernement étranger ou de l'un de ses mandataires. Les candidats sont soumis aux mêmes restrictions.

Une contribution peut être faite en argent, en biens ou en services. Aucun plafond n'est fixé par la Loi aux sommes qui peuvent être versées à un parti politique enregistré ou à un candidat. Les partis politiques enregistrés peuvent en tout temps de l'année recevoir des contributions et émettre des reçus officiels aux fins de l'impôt, contrairement aux candidats qui doivent attendre le dépôt de leur bulletin de présentation avant de pouvoir émettre de tels reçus.

Les 2 156 candidats qui ont déposé un bulletin de présentation à la 35e élection générale ont reçu 160 944 contributions, pour un montant global de 42 210 219 $. Les particuliers représentent les principaux donateurs, à la fois par le nombre et la valeur de leurs dons; ils ont en effet versé aux candidats 131 245 contributions d'une valeur de 17 565 542 $, soit 41,6 % du total des dons. Viennent ensuite en ordre d'importance les entreprises et organisations commerciales (23,4 %), les organisations politiques telles les associations locales (18,7 %) et les partis enregistrés (11,6 %). On trouvera aux figures A.1 et A.2 la répartition des contributions aux candidats, selon leur provenance et leur valeur monétaire.

Definition of election expenses
The Act defines election expenses as the commercial value of all goods or services purchased or donated and used during the campaign for the purpose of directly promoting or opposing a registered political party or the election of a candidate.

Candidates may also declare personal expenses, which the Act defines as any reasonable amount incurred in respect of travel, living and other related expenses during the election campaign. Candidates with a disability may also include in their personal expenses those specifically related to their disability.

Personal expenses are not included in the total amount of election expenses subject to the limit. However, they are included for the purposes of reimbursement.

Election expenses limits
The Act limits the amount a registered political party or a candidate may spend during an election.

The election expenses limit for a registered political party is calculated according to a formula based on the number of names on the preliminary lists of electors in the electoral districts in which the party is sponsoring a candidate. For the general election of October 25, 1993, any party that ran a candidate in each of the 295 electoral districts in Canada was permitted to spend up to $10 531 510.

Définition des dépenses d'élection
Les dépenses d'élection représentent, aux termes de la Loi, la valeur commerciale de tous les biens et services (achetés ou offerts) utilisés durant la campagne électorale, dans le but de favoriser ou de contrecarrer directement un parti politique ou l'élection d'un candidat.

Les candidats peuvent également déclarer des dépenses personnelles, lesquelles sont définies par la Loi comme étant tout montant raisonnable engagé par ceux-ci relativement à leurs frais de déplacement, de séjour et de repas dans le cadre de leur campagne électorale, y compris les dépenses afférentes. Un candidat ayant une déficience pourra également imputer à ses dépenses personnelles les dépenses particulières qu'il a dû assumer durant sa campagne, en raison de cette déficience.

Les dépenses personnelles sont exclues du montant total de dépenses d'élection assujetties au plafond de dépenses. Elles entrent toutefois dans le calcul du remboursement aux candidats.

Limites des dépenses d'élection
De par la Loi, un plafond est imposé au montant qu'un parti politique enregistré ou qu'un candidat peuvent dépenser au cours d'une élection.

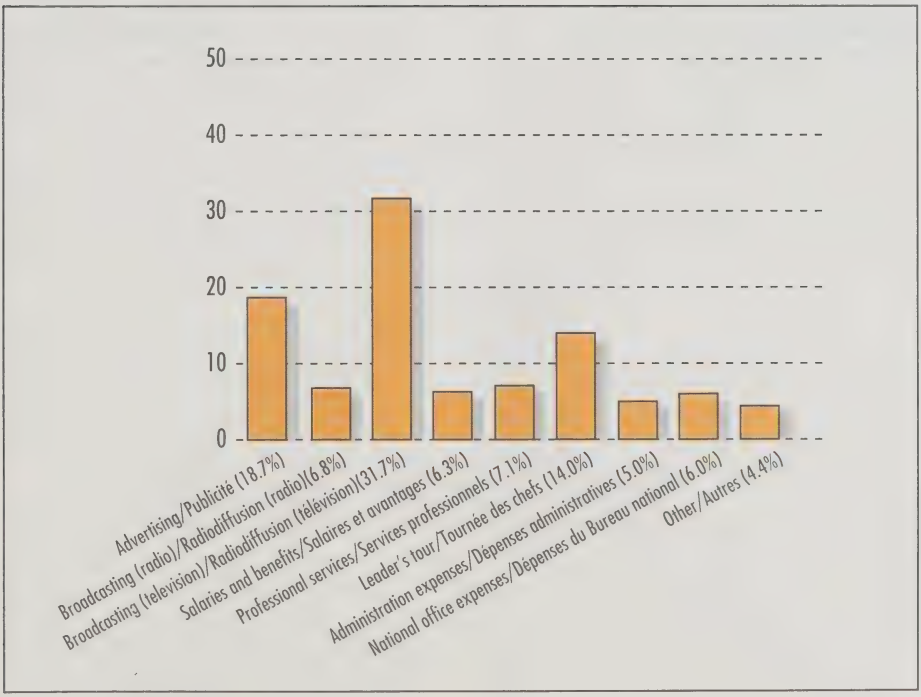

La limite des dépenses d'élection à laquelle est assujetti un parti politique enregistré est établie par un calcul qui tient compte du nombre d'électeurs inscrits sur les listes préliminaires des circonscriptions dans lesquelles

Political parties together incurred $37 870 422 in election expenses during the campaign. The production and broadcast of television advertisements was the largest single election expense, accounting for 31.7 percent of the total, followed by other advertising (18.7 percent) and the leader's tour (14 percent). Figure A.3 lists the election expenses of political parties by category.

Au chapitre des dépenses d'élection, les partis politiques ont collectivement engagé 37 870 422 $ durant leur campagne électorale. La production et la diffusion d'annonces politiques à la télévision arrive en tête des dépenses d'élection des partis avec 31,7 % du total, suivies de la publicité (18,7 %) et de la tournée des chefs (14 %). La figure A.3 montre l'ordre d'importance de ces dépenses, selon les diverses catégories.

Breakdown of election expenses of political parties, by category

Ventilation des dépenses d'élection des partis, par catégorie

The election expenses limit for a candidate is based on the number of names on the preliminary lists of electors in the electoral district in which the candidate is seeking election. The national average of electors by riding and the population density are also taken into consideration in this calculation. The limit therefore varies from district to district.

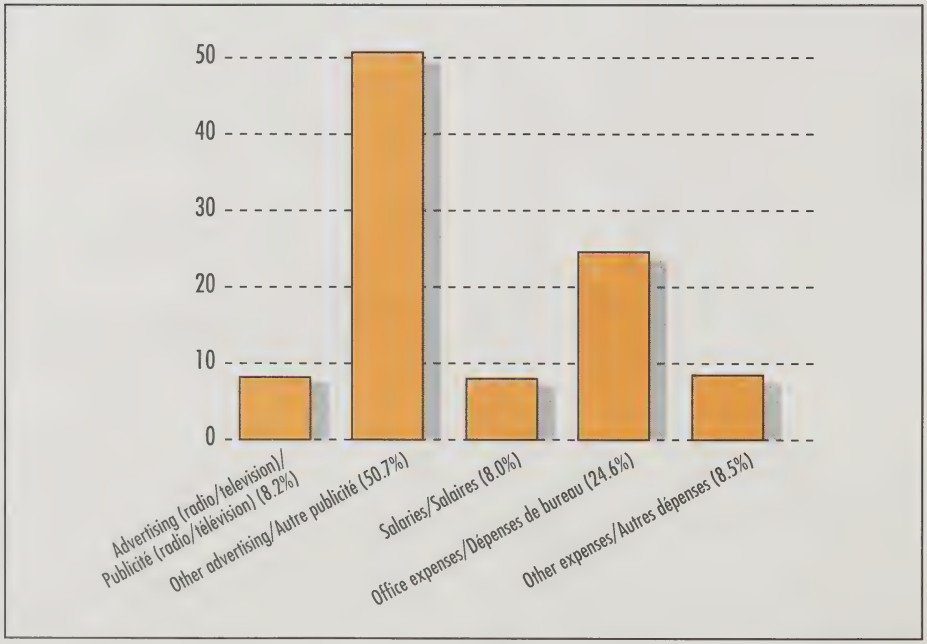

Candidates incurred a total of $40 598 908 in expenses (excluding unpaid claims) for their election campaigns. Advertising other than radio and television advertising accounted for half of the candidates' election expenses, while office expenses accounted for roughly one-quarter. Figure A.4 lists the election expenses of candidates by category.

La limite des dépenses d'élection à laquelle est assujetti un candidat dépend du nombre de noms inscrits sur les listes préliminaires des électeurs de la circonscription où il se présente. La moyenne nationale d'électeurs par circonscription et la densité démographique sont également prises en considération dans ce calcul. Cette limite varie par conséquent d'une circonscription à l'autre.

Les candidats ont dépensé au total 40 598 908 $ (excluant les créances impayées) pour leur campagne électorale. La publicité autre que celle faite sur les ondes de la radio et de la télévision accapare la moitié des dépenses d'élection des candidats, tandis que les dépenses de bureau en représentent environ le quart. La figure A.4 montre l'ordre d'importance de ces dépenses, selon les diverses catégories.

Reimbursements
The Canada Elections Act provides for the reimbursement of a portion of the election expenses incurred by registered political parties and candidates.

Under subsection 322(1) of the Act, a registered political party is entitled to reimbursement of 22.5 percent of the expenses declared in its return, provided that it spent at least 10 percent of its election expenses limit. For the general election of October 25, 1993, registered political parties were reimbursed for expenses totalling $8 031 997.

Under sections 241 and 242, a candidate is entitled to a reimbursement of 50 percent of election expenses paid, to a maximum of 50 percent of the expenses limit, if the candidate was elected or obtained at least 15 percent of the valid votes cast. An initial reimbursement equal to 15 percent of the election expenses limit is then paid to qualifying candidates. Once the candidates' election expenses returns have been audited, adjustments are made to the final reimbursement amount.

Of the 2 156 candidates who participated in the 1993 general election, 714 qualified for a reimbursement (see Table A.1). The total amount of candidates' reimbursements was $14 862 446.

Table A.2 gives an indication of changes in the election expenses of registered political parties over the last five general elections. Table A.3 provides the corresponding statistics, as well as the number of contributions, for candidates.

Payment of excess contributions
The Act requires that, where a candidate's revenue exceeds election expenses, the surplus must be paid to the chief agent of the party or to a local organization or association of members of the party in the candidate's electoral district, if the candidate was sponsored by a registered political party, or to the Receiver General for Canada, if the candidate was not sponsored by a registered political party. The surplus must be paid within one month following the date on which the

Remboursements
La Loi électorale du Canada prévoit le remboursement d'une partie des dépenses d'élection des partis politiques enregistrés et des candidats.

En vertu du paragraphe 322(1) de la Loi, un parti politique a droit à un remboursement de 22,5 % des dépenses d'élection divulguées dans son rapport, pourvu que ce montant corresponde à au moins 10 % de la limite à laquelle il était assujetti. Pour l'élection générale du 25 octobre 1993, les partis politiques enregistrés ont touché un remboursement de leurs dépenses totalisant 8 031 997 $.

En vertu des articles 241 et 242, un candidat a droit à un remboursement de 50 % de ses dépenses d'élection effectivement engagées, jusqu'à concurrence de la moitié de la limite permise, s'il a été élu ou s'il a obtenu 15 % ou plus des votes valides. Un premier remboursement correspondant à 15 % du plafond des dépenses d'élection est versé aux candidats admissibles. Après vérification du rapport du candidat concernant les dépenses d'élection, un ajustement est fait quant au montant définitif du remboursement.

Des 2 156 candidats à l'élection, 714 étaient admissibles à un remboursement (voir le tableau A.1). La somme des remboursements aux candidats représente 14 862 446 $.

Le tableau A.2 rend compte de l'évolution du niveau de dépenses des partis politiques enregistrés, au cours des cinq dernières élections générales. Le tableau A.3 présente ces mêmes statistiques, en plus du nombre de contributions, dans la perspective des candidats.

Excédent des contributions sur les dépenses
La Loi exige que tous les revenus des candidats supérieurs à leurs dépenses d'élection soient versés à l'agent principal du parti ou à une organisation ou association locale des membres du parti dans la circonscription du candidat, si celui-ci était parrainé par un parti enregistré, ou au receveur général du Canada, si le candidat n'était pas parrainé par un parti enregistré. L'excédent doit être versé dans un délai d'un mois après que candidate's official agent receives the reimbursement of the candidate's election expenses or two months after the candidate's election expenses return is filed, whichever is later.

l'agent officiel du candidat a reçu le remboursement des dépenses d'élection du candidat, ou de deux mois après la remise du Rapport du candidat concernant les dépenses d'élection, selon la dernière de ces deux éventualités qui se réalise.

NOTE TO THE READER

Nomination of candidates
Any person who wishes to contest a seat at a federal election must file a nomination paper. For the general election of October 25, 1993, 2 156 candidates were nominated, but one of those withdrew his candidacy during the period prescribed by the Canada Elections Act. However, although he withdrew, the candidate was still required to file an election expenses return.

Registration of political parties
All political parties registered before the 35th general election was called and those whose applications for registration had been filed subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Canada Elections Act were required to nominate a candidate in at least 50 electoral districts to be recognized as a registered political party. Before the 35th general election was called, 24 parties were officially registered or had filed their applications for registration. When nominations closed on September 27, 1993, the status of those parties was as follows:

Previously registered parties that continued to be registered
Christian Heritage Party of Canada
Party for the Commonwealth of Canada
The Green Party of Canada
Liberal Party of Canada
Libertarian Party of Canada
New Democratic Party
Progressive Conservative Party of Canada
Reform Party of Canada

New parties whose applications for registration had been approved
Abolitionist Party of Canada
Bloc Québécois
Canada Party
Marxist-Leninist Party of Canada
Natural Law Party of Canada
National Party of Canada

AVERTISSEMENT

Présentation des candidats
Toute personne qui désire disputer un siège à une élection fédérale doit déposer un bulletin de présentation. Au total 2 156 candidats ont présenté officiellement leur candidature à l'élection générale du 25 octobre 1993, mais l'un d'eux s'est désisté durant la période prévue par la Loi électorale du Canada. Nonobstant son désistement, ce candidat était tenu de déposer un rapport sur ses dépenses d'élection.

Enregistrement des partis politiques
Tous les partis politiques inscrits au Registre des partis avant le déclenchement de la 35e élection générale, de même que ceux dont la demande d'enregistrement avait été déposée conditionnellement aux dispositions de l'article 24 de la Loi électorale du Canada étaient tenus de présenter au moins cinquante candidats dans autant de circonscriptions pour avoir droit au statut de parti politique enregistré. Avant le déclenchement de la 35e élection générale, 24 partis étaient officiellement enregistrés ou avaient déposé leur demande d'enregistrement. À la clôture des présentations, le 27 septembre 1993, la situation des partis était la suivante :

Partis déjà enregistrés qui ont conservé leur enregistrement
Le Parti Réformiste du Canada
Le Parti Vert du Canada
Nouveau Parti Démocratique
Parti de l'Héritage Chrétien du Canada
Parti libéral du Canada
Parti Libertarien du Canada

Arrondissement des chiffres
Les données figurant dans les tableaux du présent ouvrage ont été arrondis à la deuxième décimale près, ce qui explique les écarts occasionnels pouvant survenir dans les totalisations.

Unpaid claims
Unpaid election expenses declared by candidates in their returns are not included in the totals in Tables 14 and 15 or in the tables presented by electoral district in Section II of this report. An asterisk beside the total amount of election expenses in the tables presented by electoral district denotes that there are unpaid claims in addition to the amount shown.

Appointment of auditor
The Act requires that the auditor appointed by a political party or a candidate be a member in good standing of a corporation, an association or an institute of professional accountants. Included in this definition are offices in which all the associates are such members.

Audit of returns
The returns from registered political parties and candidates used to prepare the tables in this report were audited by the Election Financing Directorate of Elections Canada.

Information included
This report on the contributions received and the expenses incurred by registered political parties and candidates includes information available to Elections Canada as of November 3, 1994.

Créances impayées
Toute dépense d'élection impayée que déclare un candidat dans son rapport ne paraît pas dans les totalisations des tableaux 14 et 15 ni dans les tableaux par circonscription de la section II du présent ouvrage. Un astérisque au côté du montant total de dépenses d'élection, dans les tableaux par circonscription, indique qu'il y a des créances impayées en sus de ce montant.

Choix du vérificateur
Le vérificateur nommé par un candidat ou un parti politique doit, aux termes de la Loi, être membre en règle d'une personne morale, d'une association ou d'un institut de comptables professionnels. Sont inclus dans cette définition les bureaux dont tous les associés sont de tels membres.

Vérification des rapports
Les rapports des partis politiques enregistrés et des candidats à partir desquels ont été préparés les tableaux du présent ouvrage ont été vérifiés par la Direction du financement des élections d'Élections Canada.

Données incluses
Le présent rapport des contributions et dépenses des partis politiques enregistrés et des candidats tient compte des données reçues par Élections Canada en date du 3 novembre 1994.

[a] This party was deleted from the Registry of Political Parties for the 35th general election; therefore, no candidates were presented. This situation also applied to the Confederation of Regions Western Party, the Parti Rhinocéros and the Social Credit Party of Canada. In addition, the Parti Rhinocéros did not submit an election expenses return. An election expenses limit was not calculated for parties deleted from the Registry of Political Parties.
Ce parti a été radié du Registre des partis politiques lors de la trente-cinquième élection générale; par conséquent, aucun candidat n'a été présenté sous cette appartenance politique. Le Confederation of Regions Western Party, le Parti Rhinocéros ainsi que le Parti Crédit Social du Canada sont dans la même situation. Le Parti Rhinocéros, en outre, n'a pas déposé de rapport sur ses dépenses d'élection. La limite autorisée des dépenses d'élection n'a pas été calculée dans le cas des partis radiés du Registre des partis politiques.

[b] This amount includes $120 000 for free broadcasting time, which should not have been reported in the party's election expenses.
Inclut un montant de 120 000 $ en temps d'antenne gratuit, qui n'aurait pas dû figurer dans les dépenses d'élection du parti.

[c] The party's auditor was unable to, and did not, express an opinion as to the fairness of expenditures of $942 081. As a result, this amount was not eligible for reimbursement, which reduced the amount of election expenses to below the minimum 10 percent required for a reimbursement.
Le vérificateur du parti n'a pu, et n'a pas exprimé d'opinion quant à l'exactitude d'une somme de 942 081 $ présentée au titre des dépenses. Ce montant n'étant par conséquent pas admissible, le total des dépenses d'élection était inférieur au seuil minimum de 10 pourcent donnant droit au remboursement.

[d] This amount includes G.S.T. and applicable Q.S.T., but these amounts were excluded for the purpose of calculating the reimbursement.
Inclut la T.P.S. et, le cas échéant, la T.V.Q., même si ces montants n'ont pas été considérés dans le calcul du remboursement.

[e] This amount includes $12 876 for G.S.T. (representing 22.5 percent of $57 228) that the party claimed and received from Revenue Canada and that it has returned to the Receiver General.
Ce montant inclut une somme de 12 876 $ en T.P.S. (soit 22,5 pourcent de 57 228 $) que le parti a déclaré avoir reçu de Revenu Canada et qu'il a remboursée au receveur général.

[f] This reimbursement includes $13 560 for contributed services from the office of the Leader of the Opposition, which the party returned to Elections Canada.
Le montant du remboursement inclut une somme de 13 560 $ pour services obtenus du Bureau du chef de l'opposition, que le parti a remboursée à Élections Canada.
